A challenge for Loki & HTTYD fans

Dear readers,

I have a challenge for you all!

As my penname implies, I'm a big Loki fan (The Liesmith is one of Loki's titles).

So I want you to write me a fanfic about Hiccup and Loki. I don't care if it's Loki/Hiccup friendship, father/son, romance, Toothless is Loki in dragon form, etc, I don't care so long as Loki is a big character and actually interacts with Hiccup.

The rules:

Preferably a multichapter fic.

It can be whatever kind of relationship between Loki and Hiccup you want, so long as they actually interact with each other.

Nobody else on Berk can know about Loki at first. The fact can be discovered by someone later. It's your choice on the actual plot part. I don't have an opinion on that matter.

I would prefer that Loki and Hiccup are at least friendsâ€”no hatred between them please!

I don't care what rating you choose to make it. I'm giving you a lot of freedom here.

If you need any help with the mythology or anything at all, please contact me.

If you're interested, please PM me, or review, or don't say anything at all, just say something about the story being a prompt from the Liesmith, or just say there's Loki in it, just let me know there's something about Loki in it. I'll find it. But if your fic is going to be in a different section (say a crossover section) please let me know.

Go crazy, knock yourselves out.

Sincerely,

The Liesmith Loki, god of Mischief, lies, and chaos.

End
file.
